

About Your Coach

My name is Alina Petras and I'm a pro tennis player and coach from Bulgaria. I've competed on ITF and WTA tours for more than 7 years and have won singles and doubles titles in juniors and women's national tournaments in Bulgaria, Luxembourg, Austria, France and other countries. The highlight of my career was training for 3 years in Vienna with Dominic Thiem under the supervision of Gunther Bresnik.

Unfortunately, I had to quit pro tour early because of chronic shoulder injury. After moving to Finland in 2013 I've completed the Bachelor Degree in Sports Coaching and Management at Haaga- Helia University of applied sciences and have been coaching competitive and recreational players of all levels for the last 9 years. I specialize in competitive player development and ever organizing in Finland and abroad.
